Darlene Dugan, conductor and current president of the West Michigan Flute Association, is a flute instructor for Calvin College, Grand Rapids Baptist College, Aquinas College, Kalamazoo College, Grand Rapids Community College and Western Michigan University, in addition to teaching in her own private studio. Darlene is Principal Flute of the Kalamazoo Symphony Orchestra and Chamber Orchestra and formerly has been the principal flutist with major symphony orchestras in Grand Rapids, Amarillo, Seattle, Wichita and Aspen and has participated in chamber music programs in the same cities. Recently she conducted the adult flute choir at the 1992 National Flute Association Convention in Los Angeles. She is the chair for the Uhl Woodwind Award sponsored by the Michigan Federation of Music Clubs.

The West Michigan Flute Association has recently joined the St. Cecilia Music Society as its newest affiliate. The Association is committed to the promotion of the study and performance of flute music for semi-professional and professional flutists.
